Mark A. Dema is a retired English teacher, water color artist, author, poet, musician and singer / songwriter. Mark taught at St. Francis of Assisi School in Newburgh NY for 16 years. He then worked as a Poet in Residence for the Washingtonville and Marlboro School Districts for 18 years. During that time, Mark also worked as a home school tutor for the Newburgh City School District. Mark's books are: The Magic Golden Pen and Poems and Poetry Transcends Time (which includes his water colors). He also writes poems regularly for The Sentinel Newspaper in New Windsor, NY.

Today Mark is mostly retired, but he still tutors for the Wappingers Central School District, continues to perform for charity events and enjoys sharing his music with others. He has developed a system for teaching the guitar to all ages. Come to Full Circle Studio of the Hudson Valley's Orientation / Open House on May 13th at 1 pm to meet Mark and hear him sing and play the acoustic guitar!

Benefits of Group Acoustic Guitar Lessons:

- Progress over the first eight weeks of instruction
- Learn about and become comfortable with the instrument
- Begin playing songs quickly as chords are learned from week to week
- Less expensive than individual lessons
- Good place to start or get back into the instrument
- Opportunity to meet others who share your common interest
- Beautiful acoustical setting
- Safe fun and supportive environment
- Continue for more advanced group or individual lessons if desired
